HAKKASAN GROUP ANNOUNCES OMNIA SAN DIEGO SCHEDULED TO OPEN SPRING 2015

SAN DIEGO, CA (October 24, 2014) – Global hospitality company Hakkasan Group, today announced OMNIA San Diego, a new nightlife concept set to open Spring 2015. OMNIA will take over the space formerly occupied by Stingaree nightclub, which will celebrate with a closing party on November 2, 2014 before undergoing a full venue remodel. OMNIA will join the San Diego community shortly following the debut of the brand's flagship nightclub at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas.

"We selected San Diego as the next location to expand our newest nightlife concept, OMNIA, as it is such a vibrant and booming city, and we believe it will complement the existing offerings in the area," said Neil Moffitt, CEO of Hakkasan Group. "The OMNIA experience exudes opulence with its classic design while merging with state-of-the-art, modern technology, and we are confident that OMNIA will enhance the appeal of the Gaslamp Quarter attracting locals, tourists and even opening the doors to more international guests."

Hakkasan Group is renowned for opening the most popular nightclub and dining destinations in each of its locations. OMNIA San Diego will present guests with a unique, unparalleled nightlife experience, complete with the level of service and quality Hakkasan Group customers have grown accustomed to, in the heart of their city.

Guests can visit www.OMNIANightclub.com, to sign up for insider information, news and announcements about the future hot spot. Guests can also find OMNIA San Diego on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. For private or corporate event opportunities, please call 619-704-9704, or visit www.omniaightclub.com.
